

Ways to Grow your Unit

Step 1:

Commit to conducting one or more recruitment efforts this Spring...

Cub Scout Packs

- Visit local Kindergarten classes to recruit new Tiger Cubs
- Invite new boys to an open house or Spring Pack activity (flyers available through your District Executive)
- Encourage peer to peer recruitment (visit our website for “My Best Friend is a Cub Scout” resources)

Boy Scout Troops

- Invite 5th graders to an open house or Spring Troop activity
- Visit a local Cub Pack to invite Webelos Scouts to your Troop
- Encourage peer to peer recruitment – create an incentive for bringing a friend

Venturing Crews

- Visit a local teen youth group to recruit new Venturers this Spring
- Invite new teens to an open house or Spring Venturing activity
- Encourage peer to peer recruitment

Step 2:

Request recruitment materials (flyers, posters, yard signs, and other resources) from your District Executive.

Step 3:

Conduct your “Boy Talks,” distribute flyers, host a Join Scouting Night, and submit the applications.

** Remember, Kindergarten boys can become Tiger Cubs, and 5th grade boys can become Boy Scouts after June 1st **
